All children have studied the same initial painting and have responded in different creative ways.

On Saturday 13th June, we will be putting on an exhibition of the art created at Clitheroe United Reform Church along with Whalley and Barrow primary schools, from 10am to 2pm.

We hope you will be able to pop into this exhibition in to enjoy looking at the children's fantastic masterpieces.

We hope to submit a sample of our work to the National Gallery. If successful this would be displayed at the National Gallery in London later in the year.
